NEW DELHI WORLD BOOK FAIR 2016

[Hosted by the National Book Trust]

PROMOTING READING FOR PLEASURE

The Central Board of Secondary Education and the National Book Trust [NBT] are committed to improving students' scholastic and co-scholastic achievement levels and, a step in this direction is promoting the importance of reading books. Here, teachers, school librarians and parents should motivate children to enjoy reading, and enable them to read a wide range of good quality literature. It is also very important to promote the habit of reading among students in the context of the proposed flagship reading programme. Vanche Bharat (Read India), of the Ministry of HRD, Govt. of India. The emphasis is on the creation of an enabling environment for reading in the country.

NBT publishes books in English, Hindi and regional languages that are age-appropriate, competitively priced and made readily available through the Book Fairs and exhibitions held throughout the country. These events also give teachers, librarians and children an opportunity for interaction with authors, publishers and book-sellers, besides students' presentations, conducted throughout the country.

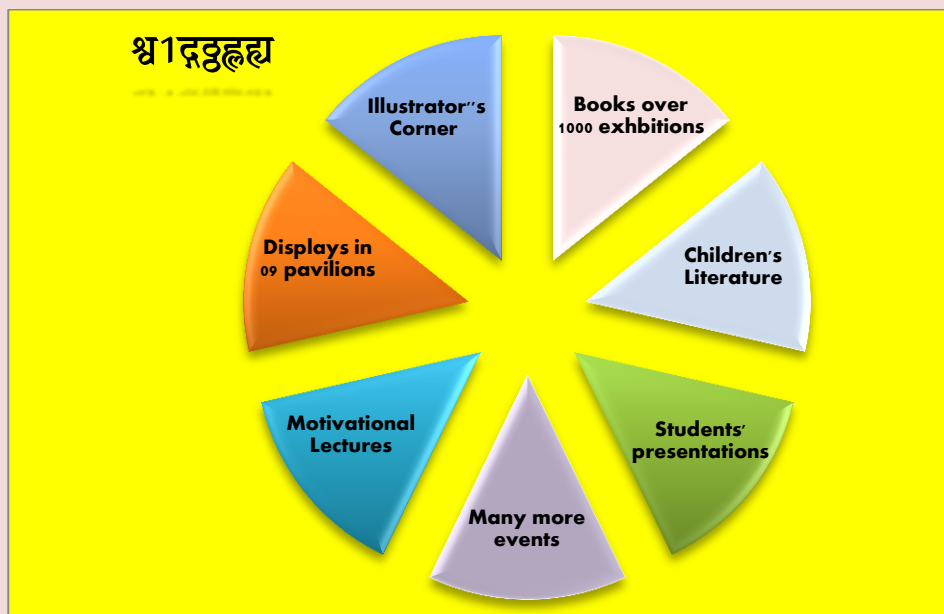

VENUE: PRAGATI MAIDAN, NEW DELHI

Saturday 09th January to 17th January 2016

11.00 am to 07.30 pm

As a part of its book promotional activities, the NBT has been organising the New Delhi World Book Fair for over 40 years. The next edition of the Book Fair is the largest in the Afro-Asian region.

CHINA has been accorded the Guest of Honour Country status this year.

In order to encourage students to read more books and read them for pleasure, all Heads of affiliated schools are requested to ensure that the information about the New Delhi World Book Fair 2016 is widely disseminated among all their stakeholders.

Schools located in and around Delhi/NCR may make necessary arrangements for their students to visit the Book Fair.
